Masquerade Ball With a Special List of Prizes-Personal Notes of Interest.

MAUI, July 5.- The weather on Maui on the Fourth was delightful. A few early morning showers cooled the atmosphere, rendering the remainder of the day most agreeable as far as the summer heat was concerned.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Maui Racing Association was successful, both financially and from a sporting standpoint. The nine racing events were all filled and hotly contested. There were a number of surprises. The victory of Jennie E. in the mile dash, free-for-all (purse $75), was unexpected. Then the eighth event, the mule race, balf mile dash, free-for-all (purse $50) was most disappointing for Makawao people, who pinned their faith to Keikikaneokapu. The mule ran like a horse, leading his four competitors a long distance. When within fifteen or ewenty feet of the finish the doors leading to the stable proved too attractive, and he ran toward them, refusing to go further. Ainanui, entered by W. H. Cornwell, ran in and took the purse.

One of the interesting contests was the foot race, one hundred yards' dash, mous sprinter from Kamehameha came in third. School of Honolulu. Eleven seconds of Peahi, Maui.
